DECK THE DOORS

Start planning your entry for Deck the Doors. Six $500 cash prizes are awarded to artists.

Ask an artist to do your windows and doors, or do it yourself. Must be ready by Nov 22nd. Let's make this the best year ever to entertain our Victoria Clipper visitors so they will keep coming back!

Planning for First Street

Please join the City and Main Street for a public input meeting on plans for First Street redesign. Oct 25, 5:30, at the Langley United Methodist Church Community Room.

SPOOKTACULAR LANGLEY

It is time again for the witches, goblins and pumpkins to grace our streets for the Spooktacular Langley Trick-or-Treat event on Halloween. This is one of the best days downtown. Merchants, kids and parents come to enjoy the town from 2:30 to 5 pm. Always fun and lively. The Langley United Methodist Church will also offer a Truck or Treat at their parking lots during the same hours, and carnival games, sweet and savory treats and hot cider.

Dog owners, dress up your pooch and come for a walk about town. On a leash please, and only if your dog likes kids. Jean Dieden, owner of Animal Hospital by the Sea will have treats for dogs and kids too!

Don't miss this day, it is a spectacular, Spooktacular Langley.

Save the Date!

Spooktacular!

Oct 31st 2:30-5 pm

Come Trick-or-Treat downtown Langley. Merchants and the town are dressed for the holiday and ready to hand out treats!

Boo La La

Friday, Oct 27

Seattle's most celebrated dance theater brings a can-can burlesque show to WICA. Get your tickets at www.wicaonline.org

Deck the Doors

Nov. 22

Get those plans going for the annual Deck the Doors contest. Cash awards for the artists. Let's make it the best year!

Community Feast!

Always a fabulous feast when the community comes together with a potluck supper. The plaza in front of Callahan’s was closed, tables and chairs prepared. People come visit, eat and enjoy. Great conversations with friends were shared. We symbolically take back the streets of Langley.

Attracting Young Professionals

Intern Grace Swanson is writing a series of blogs on young entrepreneurs who brought their business to Langley. With the Big Gig capacity from Whidbey Telecom, now is the time to attract more young professionals and families, who can work from here for anywhere in the world.

Anthes Ferments

138 Second Street
360 221--0161

Chef, Trap Landry and wife Sonya Tsuchigane opened this new restaurant with a goal to serve healthy food. Trap, a chef for 25 years, became interested in fermentation when he wanted a better Reuben Sandwich. His discovery lead to a new career in the fermentation process, which aids digestion with the use of lactic acid bacteria and Koji mold. Yes, it is good for you and tastes great!! Try the Welsh Rarebit, crab with sourdough bread, beer and cheese, or the Shoyu Ramen Bowl, or Corned Beef Pastie. Several new miso dishes coming this fall. Enjoy Shirlee Read’s Pies, beer, wine, Sake or delicious vinegar drinks. Live music every weekend. Open till 9 pm, weekends till 10 pm.
