ISLAND SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

Nothing says summer like outdoor performances of Shakespeare! July 13-September 2. As always, pay what you will/pass the hat!

LMSA ANNUAL MEETING

You are cordially invited to the Langley Main Street Association Annual Meeting on June 13, 2018 from 5:30-7:00pm in our office at 195 2nd St on the 2nd Fl.

Whether you are a member or would like to find out more about LMSA, drop by for a spell.

Chat with board members, discuss ideas with your neighbors, nibble on finger foods, and sip on something refreshing. We would love to see you there!

Janet Ploof | LMSA, President

Save the Date!

LANGLEY STREET DANCE
July 14 @ 7pm

Enjoy a cool summer evening under the open skies with the local classic rock/blues band Mussel Flats and The New Rhythmatics, a lively north-Seattle based band that focus includes pre-70s soul/r&b, swing, roots, pop, and vintage country.

WHIDBEY ISLAND FAIR
July 19-22, 2018

There's something for everyone at the Whidbey Island Fair. 4-H exhibits, livestock, entertainment like Hair Nation, carnival rides, and don't forget the fair food—you know you want it! Remember: You '18 Nothing Yet!

DOCKSTOCK
2018
August 17 & 18

All are welcome! Come by boat or on foot for two days of free live music, food, libations, and even a crab cook-off. Settle in on the beach or in your slip for the best in local music. Contact the South Whidbey Harbor at (360) 221-1120 for exact times each day.

SOME-BUNNY GOT AN AWARD...

Langley Main Street Association was awarded the Outstanding Promotional Event Award for their springtime promotion Bunny Daze, at Washington Main Street's Excellence on Main Awards Ceremony on April 24 in Port Townsend, Washington. The ceremony was held in conjunction with RevitalizeWA, Washington State's Preservation and Main Street Conference.

According to Breanne Durham, Washington Main Street Coordinator, "Bunny Daze is an excellent example of making lemonade out of lemons, something every successful Main Street Community must do well. It's a simple and yet impactful event, in that it capitalizes on a well-known local topic and creates opportunities for local artists, businesses, and families to come together in a fun and memorable way."

MORE ANIMAL-RELATED NEWS!?!

It looks as though bunnies are not the only threat to our beautiful landscapes. A beaver was spotted looking longingly at our public gardens.

NEW BUSINESSES

Welcome these new businesses to Langley!

AROUND TOWN

NAURE IN SIGHT

Residents, and visitors alike, have been enjoying the new telescopes that were installed in time for whale season!

GARDEN
WORK PARTIES

Did you know that LMSA volunteers are the backbone of the public gardens in downtown Langley? If you see these tireless volunteers out and about watering or weeding, but sure to let them know how much you appreciate their efforts! Interested in joining them? Email us at mainstreet@whidbey.com to get involved!

NOT JUST HANGING AROUND

You may have noticed that most, if not all, of the vibrant hanging baskets have been installed around town. LMSA volunteers and interns will now begin the task of daily watering to keep these beauties stunning all summer long!

PAWZ BY THE SEA 5K/10K

Thanks to everyone that came out with or without their furry friends to the 2018 PAWZ by the Sea 5K/10K this Memorial Day! For more pics visit us on Facebook.
